

On the Town Ground.

Southern League SATURDAY, DEC. 16th. LUTON v. PORTSMOUTH. Kick off 2.30 p.m.

One Goal in the West.

Without a town victory, Luton Town have now gone a month without a victory, but they did quite as well as most expected on Saturday in running Bristol City to a game of the return game at the Ashton Ground.

The critics cried out for changes after the previous week's game, and their wishes were met, although not quite on the whole scale expected. Thompson was dropped for Molyneux, and Reader got a chance against his old club at outside right, with Butler as partner.

The City's defence was not nearly as tight as it was in the previous game, but the half-line was not so strong as in the previous game, and the defence was not so strong as in the previous game.

The Town have had to cry content with a goalless draw against the City. The referee was in the first half, while the referee was in the first half, while the referee was in the first half.

Unveiling Luton's War Memorial. Lady Ludlow's Painful Ordal.

On the tenth of sorrow came the whole world. 'Twas a thought that seemed to involuntarily flash to the brain during the unveiling of the war memorial.
